

The company of professional physical security.

Metrovox has been operating for 40 years in the field of crime and fire prevention.

The Company manages all aspects and problems of technological nature in services supplying for protection of citizens and their property.

Metrovox guarantees the installation of security systems and maintenance services before, during and after sale. Also, it supplies auxiliary guard and tele-alarm services using the equipment and personnel of the security and global service companies of the STONE Group.

Over 25000 public and private companies and private citizens in Italy and the Mediterranean area have entrusted their security to dedicated systems set up and installed by Metrovox with advanced technologies.

The company has installed integrated security networks with alarms, television monitoring, access control, telemetry and telecommunications.

Metrovox is present all over Italy with its qualified technical assistance centres able to ensure an high professional service level. A full prompt maintenance programs and technical assistance are always possible by a complete and continuous spare parts inventory updating and by the professional capability of its technicians.

Metrovox network offers to the Customers a complete technical assistance in all phases of activity: risk analysis, technical project, realisation of the system, after-sales assistance.

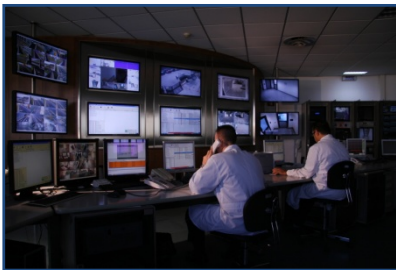

The highly professional approach followed by Metrovox has led the Company to pursue an associative purpose in the security field. The company is member of ANIE (National Federation Industries Electrotechnics and Electronics) and UIR (Rome Union Industries-Confindustria).

The size and performance characteristics of systems implemented have led Metrovox to be: qualified SOA to implement security systems in the Government Properties; certified "IMQ Allarmi", Institute for the seal of quality at the maximum level; awarded by a Quality Certification ISO 9001-2000 by CSICERT.

Certificate of merit that are important acknowledgements stating the compliance of Company services to the quality and reliability criteria demanded by the market

Continuous and in-depth updating of all aspects and problems in this field is crucial to ensure results to be obtained, particularly regarding the technical and performance characteristics of technical equipment available in the market world-wide.

Analytical knowledge of the technology available allows Metrovox to make the right selection of system parts in order to meet the requirements of the Client, and such a knowledge is also dedicated to solving any specific problem arising.

On the basis of this concept of flexibility, Metrovox installs and ensures the following services:

- Centralised systems for telemetric and alarm signals.
- Peripheral and internal intrusion detection systems.
- Automatic fire detection and extinguishing systems.
- Television and video-alarm monitoring systems.
- Access and presence control systems.
- Telemetric systems for monitoring and running technological plants.
- Wired and Radio-communication systems.
- Protection systems for Information and Data Banks on lined-up networks.
- Risk analysis, risk assessment.

